Law is a system of rules that are created and enforced through social or governmental institutions to regulate behavior. It has been defined both as "the Science of Justice" and "the Art of Justice". Law is a system that regulates and ensures that individuals or a community adhere to the will of the state. Red tape is an idiom that refers to excessive regulation or rigid conformity to formal rules that is considered redundant or bureaucratic and hinders or prevents action or decision-making. It is usually applied to governments, corporations, and other large organizations. Things often described as "red tape" include filling out paperwork, obtaining licenses, having multiple people or committees ... Not only is the Institute meeting a felt need by students but it has also achieved recognition by employers, many of whom sponsor their employees as students; and by the colleges, where the Institute's examinations have been incorporated into business studies training programmes as a first step towards a more advanced qualification. 4 min. video 6 min. video Corporate Government Assets Human Resources We have been deceived. 7.5 min. video 15 min. video "Holly", a tree whose wood is most sought after for making Magic Wands that cast Spells rather well.
