It's more likely that the powershuttle needs an overhaul. The 580C was a great machine, it revolutionized the way most companies looked at building backhoes, but that early powershuttle was a bit of a weak link.I'm new to the site and have looked around a bit to see if anyone has this problem, but I don't see it. Anyhow, I just bought a tired old diesel 4X4 1979 Case 580K Backhoe and found that she does not move in any of the four gears until almost completely warmed up.
