Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits. – Proverbs 18:21 Editor's Note: Words are one of the most powerful weapons we have. They can be a sharp sword or a soothing salve, both having the ability to change someone's path in an instant. The ... (I'm checking on the student who missed three weeks of class to see if they met with the professor. I'll update as soon as I know, but I hope there is a favorable outcome. Here is a recent write-in that I'm also escalating because as the term closes in on all of us, e-mails between student and professor become more abundant. Congress won't shut down the government Friday. The House and Senate just passed a spending bill to keep the government open for one week, and President Trump is expected to sign it. That means ... The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee says it is "wrong" that his committee will receive a redacted version of special counsel Robert Mueller's report after Attorney General William ...
