The first production Familia, styled by a young Giorgetto Giugiaro while working at Carrozzeria Bertone, appeared in October 1963. In line with Mazda's policy of only gradually approaching the production of private cars (a luxury in Japan at the time), the first Familia was initially only available as a commercial two-door wagon called the Familia van. "will be a great sports car" I've only had my car for about a year or so and I love how it pulls. It's an automatic but runs as if it's a manual. The torque though needs a bit of performance, but other than that it tears the road apart. The hard part is finding parts for my Mazda considering it's an older vehicle, but other than that I'm a proud Mazda owner!
