

Download Mothercare Car Seat Guide

Mothercare car seats are rigorously tested. They undergo a front collision test at 50km/h, a rear impact test at 30km/h and a rollover test, to ensure your little one is protected in the instance of a collision. Take a look at these handy guides, or visit one of our trained advisors in Mothercare stores who can help you choose the correct car seat for your child and your vehicle. car seats buying guide From an infant car seat for baby's first journey home from hospital or a booster seat for the school run, our car seat buying guide will help you choose ...car seat safety guide. It can be a little daunting when it comes to buying a car seat, there's so much to consider and remember when it comes to safety. So to help make everything that little bit easier for you, we've created a handy car seat safety guide so you can make the best decision for both you and your little one. This is a locking system, which ensures your baby's car seat is securely fastened in. All mothercare child seats comply with EU regulation, which is shown by the ? symbol on the label. ... You can look at our car seat buying guide or pop in to speak to one of our in-store experts that can go through all of this and answer any questions you ...