The Society for Nutrition Education and Behavior (SNEB) represents the unique professional interests of nutrition educators in the United States and worldwide. Introduction. In the literature discussing nutrition education projects, evaluation is generally mentioned. At the same time it is underlined that a nutrition education programme is usually only one component of a strategy designed to ultimately influence individual behaviour to solve nutritional problems (ICN, 1992). This site is a dynamic resource for public health nutritionists/RDNs. The broad, Public Health Nutrition Categories of Practice (Nutrition, Advocacy, Communication, Research, PSE, and Leadership) contain many sub-categories that are called "indicators." Sam Sims. How's your driving? Below average, pretty normal, or better than most? Research suggests that the majority of people reading this article have just answered 'better than most'. They are surely wrong.
