The Dave Ramsey Show. Live - Weekdays 2-5pm EST. Dave Ramsey started on one station in Nashville back in 1992, sharing practical answers for life's tough money questions. When it comes to retirement planning, you probably hear a lot about 401(k)s. But if you're a federal employee or in the military, you don't have a 401(k). But, believe me, that doesn't mean you can't build wealth for the future. You can contribute to the federal Thrift Savings Plan—and ... We've all been following Pete's series on Dave Ramsey's baby steps program with the utmost interest.. As someone that has never struggled with debt, the need for the program has never presented itself to me. However I discovered his radio show in college, and really like the call-ins from listeners with financial problems. Now that you've got an idea what term and whole life cost, let's look at the reasons most financial experts agree term is the way to go.
