Michael L. Kabler, Judy L. Genshaft. pp. 150-159. ABSTRACT: School personnel participate regularly in multidisciplinary team (MDT) meetings and associated team activities as a result of Public Law 94-142 mandates. Research suggests that these MDT activities do not reflect the utilization of a planned, systematic and functional decision-making process. The Journal of Multidisciplinary Healthcare (JMDH) aims to represent and publish research in healthcare areas delivered by practitioners of different disciplines. This includes studies and reviews conducted by multidisciplinary teams as well as research which evaluates or reports the results or conduct of such teams or healthcare processes in general. JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary sources. Domestic violence against men deals with domestic violence experienced by men or boys in a domestic setting, such as in marriage or cohabitation. As with domestic violence against women, violence against men may constitute a crime, but laws vary between jurisdictions. Men who report domestic violence can face social stigma regarding their perceived lack of machismo and other denigrations of ...
